Launchmetrics acquires its main competitor, DMR, strengthening its data and analytic capabilities – becoming the undisputed category leader in Brand Performance for Fashion, Luxury and Beauty

Together, they offer clients the best of both worlds; the industry-recognized technology behind Launchmetrics' solutions along with DMR's 20 years of historical data and reputable white-glove expertise

New York, March 29, 2022 – Launchmetrics, the leading Brand Performance Cloud for the Fashion, Luxury, Beauty (FLB) industries, announces the acquisition of their largest competitor, DMR. Following the acquisition, Launchmetrics becomes the SaaS provider to over 1,200 FLB brands, offering the most comprehensive brand performance solution. This strategic move marks the company's 5th acquisition*, projecting Launchmetrics to the undisputed category leader in Brand Performance.

For Fashion, Luxury and Beauty industries, the brand is the most important financial asset; with investments upwards of $250B/year on activities directly linked to brand reputation. While there are a multitude of tools that track business and financial performance, Launchmetrics provides the only end-to-end solution to measure brand performance. Their Brand Performance Cloud provides optimization and measurement tools enabling executives to make smarter decisions around their branding efforts.

"This is a significant moment for Launchmetrics," states Michael Jais, CEO of Launchmetrics. "We've been working hard to create the industry's most powerful solution to optimize and measure brand performance – thanks to DMR's added value our momentum is propelled, with more than 1200 clients using our tools today. I am proud to say that we're an undisputed player in our category but we're also one step closer to reaching our greater business objectives: hitting over $100M in ARR by 2025."

"At DMR, we care deeply about each and every one of our client's specificities and as Founder I have also cared for more than 20 years about our employees, whom I consider my family," states DMR's President & Founder, Enzo di Sarli. "Launchmetrics has been a longstanding competitor of DMR, the conversation has been a natural evolution over the years and my main goal, thanks to this decision, is to ensure my legacy, over the next years both to DMR clients, whose trust was essential over the years and to DMR worldwide staff who have always been by my side throughout this exciting journey".

Thanks to this acquisition, Launchmetrics grows to over 400 employees, across 10 offices worldwide. DMR clients will continue to benefit from the extensive panel of data and services that they know and love, while gaining access to even more metrics found within the Launchmetrics Brand Performance Cloud solutions, including (but not limited to) social media campaigns in both Western and Eastern territories on platforms such as Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, TikTok, Youtube, WeChat, Douyin (TikTok), Weibo, RED, Bilibili, and others. In return,

Previous, recent acquisitions include PARKLU in 2020, IMAXtree in 2019, Visual Box and Style Coalition in 2017*

Launchmetrics clients will see an added value thanks to augmented coverage results, 20 years of historical data as well as access to strengthened customer-centric services.

Launchmetrics technology monitors data for more than 5,000 lifestyle brands; tracking upwards of 5 million documents per day. Its Brand Performance Cloud encompasses:

- 600,000 Voices across print, online and social media
- 10,000 publications (newspapers, magazines and supplements)
- and 50,000 online sources

As well as:

- 85% global fashion shows powered by Launchmetrics
- 4k images and 1k videos shot every season, for more than 40 Fashion Weeks
- $5B product value managed every season through the Samples tool

Ongoing, Launchmetrics will provide industry professionals with the tools and data to help executives make smarter decisions around their branding efforts. Enzo di Sarli will stay on as a consultant to ensure a smooth transition to clients, while bringing his respected expertise to the business alongside former DMR CEO Marco Levi. Moving forward, Launchmetrics' top priority is to ensure DMR customers keep the same level of service while benefiting from the variety of tools found within their Brand Performance Cloud.
